and it appearing that no other or further notice need be provided; and the Court having reviewed the Motion and held a hearing to consider the relief requested in the Motion (the “Hearing”); and, after due deliberation, the Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing establish good and sufficient cause for the relief granted herein; and the Court having determined that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their creditors, their estates and all other parties in interest; and all objections to the Motion, if any, having been withdrawn, resolved or overruled; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Pursuant to sections 363(b)(1) and 503(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Motion is granted as set forth herein.
2. The 2022 KEIP is approved in its entirety.
3. The 2022 KERP is approved in its entirety.
4. The payment date with respect to the 2020 KERP Long-Term Awards previously approved by this Court shall be June 30, 2022 (or the Company’s regular payroll date immediately prior to or immediately following such date), subject to clawback through March 15, 2023.
5. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to take all actions necessary to implement the 2022 KEIP on the terms and conditions set forth in the Motion, including making any payments pursuant to the terms of the 2022 KEIP.
6. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to take all actions necessary to implement the 2022 KERP on the terms and conditions set forth in the Motion, including making any payments pursuant to the terms of the 2022 KERP.

7. Once earned, the Debtors' obligations to pay amounts that become due and owing under the 2022 KEIP shall constitute administrative expenses pursuant to section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby entitled to priority payment pursuant to section 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. Once earned, the Debtors' obligations to pay amounts that become due and owing under the 2022 KERF shall constitute administrative expenses pursuant to section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby entitled to priority payment pursuant to section 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Nothing in this Order nor any action taken by the Debtors in furtherance of the implementation hereof shall be deemed to constitute an assumption or rejection of any executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and all of the Debtors' rights with respect to such matters are expressly reserved.

10. Notwithstanding the relief granted herein and any actions taken hereunder, nothing contained herein shall (a) create, nor is it intended to create, any rights in favor of, or enhance the status of any claim held by, any person or entity or (b) be deemed to convert the priority of any claim from a prepetition claim into an administrative expense claim.

11. Nothing in this Order nor the Debtors' payment of claims pursuant to this Order shall be construed as or deemed to constitute (a) an agreement or admission by the Debtors as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors on any ground, (b) a grant of third-party beneficiary status or bestowal of any additional rights on any third party, (c) a waiver or impairment of any rights, claims, or defenses of the Debtors' rights to dispute any claim on any ground, (d) a promise by the Debtors to pay any claim, or (e) an implication or admission by the Debtors that such claim is payable pursuant to this Order.

12. For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that any 2022 KEIP Participant or 2022 KERF Participant is (a) determined by a final order of this Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction to have (x) knowingly participated in any criminal misconduct in connection with his or her employment with the Debtors or (y) been aware, other than from public sources, of acts or omissions of others that such participant knew at the time were fraudulent or criminal with respect to the Company's commercial practices in connection with the sale of opioids and failed to report such fraudulent or criminal acts or omissions internally at the Company or to law enforcement authorities at any time during his or her employment with the Company, or (b) believed by the Company based on reasonable inquiry (including inquiry of its attorney and advisors), which inquiry shall be completed prior to any payments being made to the applicable participant, to have met either of the standards in the foregoing clauses (a)(x) or (y), then in either case such participant shall not be eligible to receive any payments approved by this Order. All parties' rights, if any, to seek disgorgement of payments following the entry of any final order referred to in clause (a) of the foregoing sentence are reserved. The CEO shall not take any action with respect to his compensation under the 2022 KEIP with the intent or material effect of frustrating enforcement of any potential judgment of the Court in these Chapter 11 Cases or any other actions pending against him in any other court or jurisdiction with respect to such amounts.

13. Any Bankruptcy Rule (including, but not limited to, Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h)) or Local Rule that might otherwise delay the effectiveness of this Order is hereby waived, and the terms and conditions of this Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon its entry.

14. The contents of the Motion and the notice procedures set forth therein are good and sufficient notice and satisfy the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York, and no other or further notice of the Motion or the entry of this Order shall be required.

15. The Debtors are authorized to take all such actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the terms of this Order.

16. The Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.
